

Beady Eyes- parenthesis are explanations of words I might've made up

You make me uncomfy (uncomfortable)

Though you look so fluffy

And you're a bird, singing softly from your nest

You make me feel scared

Though your uncomfy (uncomfortable, nothing compares to it)

Cause your beady eyes, make me want to cry, though somehow I'm stifled by your beauty

Your feathers have subdued me

And made me feel so much I had to write

A song
